

Job Description

Title: Loss Control Consultant

Reports to: Gary L. Berger

Description of Responsibilities

Working with Client, Account Executive, Claims Department and Insurance Carrier to proactively reduce risk management expense.

Key Duties and Accountabilities

- Conduct client loss control surveys for all lines of coverage and classes of business.
- Design and implement customized client based safety and claims management programs.
- Develop client specific Health and Safety Programs including policies, procedures and corporate manuals.
- Organize and conduct training classes.
- Perform loss analysis, loss trending and review of reserves in coordination with Account Executive, Claims Department and Client.
- Assist Clients with contract review and risk transfer implementation
- Act as Liaison between client and insurance carrier loss control
- Assist Account Executives with new business acquisition and retention of accounts
- Work with Claims Manager to proactively reduce Agency loss ratio

Qualifications

- Minimum 5 + years experience
- College degree and large account experience required
- Advanced safety and or engineering degree a plus
- Specific skills in construction required
- Proficient Computer Skills required
- Related Professional designation beneficial
- Ability to identify client needs and provide solutions required
- A team player with the ability to collaborate with a variety of disciplines to accomplish goals.